OCBP WEB www.ococean.com/ocbp or www.oceancitymd.gov

Our web presence has gone through many changes throughout the years and continues to evolve. Bill Funkhouser has been instrumental in the conversion from the old site to the new and continue to help with weekly updates. Others have also worked with our web editor to make it as informative and user friendly as possible. People use our website as a tool to learn more about the OCBP, beach/water safety and as an OCBP employee resource. If you visit the site and see information that needs to be updated or if you have an idea or contribution for the web page, please contact our Web Editor/Public Relations Coordinator, Kristin Josen at kjosen@oceancitymd.gov

The mission of the Ocean City Beach Patrol is to provide for the safety and well-being of the beach patrons of the Town of Ocean City, Maryland, who participate in beach and ocean-related activities. This mission includes educating the public, preventing potential accidents, and intervening when necessary and appropriate, both on the beach and in the adjacent Atlantic Ocean waters. The Patrol intends to fulfill its mission by:

- Recruiting the most highly qualified candidates.
- Employing qualified individuals for administrative and educational positions, competent Surf Rescue Technicians, and public-minded Surfing Beach Facilitators.
- Training personnel with the most current information, technology and equipment.
- Outfitting personnel with current, well-maintained, and appropriate equipment.
- Upholding the highest standards of professionalism; to present knowledgeable, capable, and reliable Surf Rescue Technicians to the general public.
